THE CHURCH REVIEW.

EDITED BY THE REV. HENRY MASON BAUM.

EDITORIAL NOTICES.

All communications for the Editor and books for review (to be sent by mail) should be addressed to P. O. Box 1839, New York, N. Y. Parcels for Express or Messenger delivery should be addressed to 37 Park Row, New York, N. Y.

Contributors are requested to send their MSS. without rolling or folding them, and to use half sheets of commercial note size. No notice will be taken of MSS. with both sides of the sheets written upon.

The Policy of the REVIEW is stated in the following extract from the commendation signed by fifty-nine of the American Bishops—all who were present at the General Convention held in Philadelphia, October, 1883:—

At the head of our current literature stands the CHURCH REVIEW. During the last few years, and under its present Editorship, it has won a deservedly high place among all similar publications in the country. It is as comprehensive in its tone as the Church itself. All schools of thought that may lawfully claim recognition are welcome to its pages. The most vital questions of the day have been discussed by it with dignity, learning, and commanding ability, etc.

TWO PRIZES OF $50 00 EACH.

A prominent Clergyman of the Church offers two prizes of $50.00 each for the best articles on the following subjects:—

I. THE IMPEDIMENTS TO MARRIAGE—DIRECTLY AND INDIRECTLY—REFERRED TO IN THE MARRIAGE SERVICE.

II. THE VALIDITY OF ANGLICAN ORDINATIONS.

In all cases proofs must be given.

Articles on the first subject must be sent to the Editor of the CHURCH REVIEW not later than the first of September; and on the second subject the first of October next. Each article must bear the private mark of the writer and be accompanied by a sealed envelope containing a copy of the same and the name of the writer. The two articles receiving the prizes will be published in the September and October numbers of the CHURCH REVIEW.

A PRIZE OF $350.00 OFFERED.

The Editor is authorized, by a prominent layman deeply interested in the subject, to offer a first and second prize of $250 and $100 respectively for the best and second best of a series of articles to be written for the purpose of showing the value and importance of Beneficiary Aid Societies for the education of young men for the ministry of the Church—the duty on the part of the laity generously to sustain such societies, and effectually answering the objections commonly urged against beneficiary education.

CONDITIONS, etc.

The articles must not exceed 12,000 words in length, and must be mailed to the Editor of the CHURCH REVIEW, P. O. Box 1839, New York, N. Y., on or before November 1, 1886.

Names of writers must not be signed to their articles. But each article must bear the private mark of the writer and a copy of this and the name of the writer must be addressed in a sealed envelope to "E., P. O. Box 704, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The award will be made by a committee of five, namely,—two of whom will be appointed by the Evangelical Education Society, and two by the Society for the Increase of the Ministry, and the fifth being the offerer of the prize, or some one selected by him.

The articles taking the first and second prizes will be printed in the CHURCH REVIEW for December, 1886, and January, 1887, and the copyright of the two articles will be the joint property of the above-named Societies.

The other articles will be returned to the writers, but the Committee may, at its option, retain any of them by sending to the writer the sum of $25 in lieu thereof.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Beginning with the July number THE CHURCH REVIEW will appear monthly instead of quarterly, as before, and will be published by Messrs. HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & Co.

While THE CHURCH REVIEW is not the exponent of any organization, it counts among its writers so many of the ablest and most eminent of the clergy and scholars of the American Episcopal Church, that it may fairly claim to represent the thought, the culture, and the varied intellectual and religious character of that Church.

THE REVIEW is heartily commended to the favor and practical support of all to whom its special religious associations appeal, and to others who cannot fail to be interested by its discussions of ethical, historical, educational, and literary subjects.

Each number will contain ninety-six pages, or more.

TERMS: $4.00 a year; 35 cents a number.

Postal Notes and Money are at the risk of the sender, and therefore remittances should be made by money-order, draft, or registered letter, to

COMMUNION WINE.

A Critical Examination of Scripture Words and Historic Testimony. By the Rev. EDWARD H. JEWETT, S. T. D. (Reprinted from the CHURCH REVIEW of April and July, 1885.) Price 25 cents.

FROM BISHOP WILLIAMS.

MY DEAR DR. JEWETT:

MIDDLETOWN, CONN., January 11, 1886.

I have read your admirable articles on "Communion Wine" with great pleasure and instruction. You have, it seems to me, settled the question beyond possibility of further argument. The labor of preparing two such articles must have been enormous; and there are not many among us capable of undertaking it.

I am sure you will receive, as you assuredly deserve, the thanks of all persons who desire to learn the meaning and teaching of Holy Scripture fairly brought out from it, and not any kind of notion imported into it.

Affectionately yours,

JOHN WILLIAMS.

FROM BISHOP SEYMOUR.

MY DEAR BROTHER:

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., May 9, 1885.

From the fact that I have an article in the CHURCH REVIEW for April, I have looked into the number, and in consequence I have seen and read your article on "Communion Wine." I beg to thank you for it. It is convincing and crushing. The principle involved is of very grave importance. This so-called "temperance movement" is in the line of doing an immense amount of mischief—it is confusing men's minds, and good men's, too, in the distinction between good and evil. Your article is capital.

Affectionately yours,

GEORGE F. SEYMOUR.

THE RIVERSIDE PARALLEL BIBLE.

Containing the Old and New Testaments translated out of the original Tongues : Being the Version set forth A. D. 1611, commonly called King James's Version, arranged in parallel columns with the Revised Versions of 1881 and 1885. With References, Prefaces, Lists of Revisers, Readings preferred by the American Revisers, etc. Quarto, 1742 pages, red edges, $6.00 ; Persian, $12.00 ; full morocco, $18.00.

The Riverside Bible meets all the requisitions of typographical accuracy and excellence, is convenient in size, and is placed at a price remarkably low, considering the outlay required for so large and handsome a volume. No publishing house in America or England is better prepared to thoroughly edit and faithfully make such a Bible, and we have in this edition what may be, without qualification, recommended as a correct, serviceable, and finely made book. — Maine Sunday-School Reporter.

The Riverside Parallel Bible, a royal octavo, gotten out with great neatness and taste, is the most attractive issue we have yet seen of the Version of 1611 combined with the recently revised Version. For convenience, for fullness of reference and indications, and for neat and inviting pages for comparison of the two Versions, the edition before us deserves high recommendation. It is printed with the characteristic taste which marks the work of the Riverside Press. — Lutheran Quarterly Review.

DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE:

Comprising its Antiquities, Biography, Geography, and Natural History. By WILLIAM SMITH. American Edition. Revised and edited by H. B. HACKETT, D. D., assisted by EZRA ABBOT, LL. D. With five hundred and ninety-six Illustrations. In four volumes. With xxx.+3667 pages. The set, 8vo, $20.00 net ; sheep, $25.00 net ; half morocco, $30.00 net ; half calf, extra, $30.00 net ; half russia, $35.00 net ; full morocco, full gilt, $40.00 net ; tree calf, $45.00 net.

The Dictionary of the Bible, edited by William Smith, LL. D., has become the standard Encyclopædia of Biblical knowledge wherever the English language is spoken. The editor, widely known through his classical dictionaries, etc., has brought all his experience and genius for organization to bear upon this work ; and the list of his associates comprises such names as Alford, Blakesley, Bonar, Davies, Deutsch, Ellicott, Farrar, Fergusson, Ffoulkes, Grove, Hervey, Hooker, Houghton, Howson, Huxtable, Layard, Lightfoot, Meyrick, Oppert, Perowne, Plumptre, Poole, Porter, Pritchard, Rawlinson, Stanley, Thomson, Tregelles, Tristram, Twisleton, Westcott, Wordsworth, Wright.

There are several American editions of Smith's Dictionary of the Bible, but this edition comprises not only the contents of the original English edition, unabridged, but very considerable and important additions by the editors, Professors Hackett and Abbot, and twenty-six other eminent American scholars. This edition has 500 more pages than the English, and 100 more illustrations ; more than a thousand errors of reference in the English edition are corrected in this ; and an Index of Scripture illustrated is added.

To the careful scholarship of these two American Professors we are indebted for what is unquestionably the most accurate and serviceable work of its kind for the general student in any tongue. — Prof. J. HENRY THAYER.

What was, to begin with, the best book of its kind in our language is now still better. — Prof. ROSWELL D. HITCHCOCK.

TWO VALUABLE BOOKS.

A HARMONY OF THE FOUR GOSPELS IN GREEK.

Newly arranged, with Explanatory Notes, by EDWARD ROBINSON, D. D., LL. D., lately Professor of Biblical Literature in the Union Theological Seminary, New York. Revised Edition. Giving the Text of Tischendorf, and Various Readings accepted by Tregelles, Westcott, and Hort, and in the Revised English Version of 1881. With additional Notes by Professor M. B. RIDDLE, D. D., Professor of New Testament Exegesis in Hartford Theological School. 8vo, $2.00 net.

It is not necessary, at this time, to speak of the value of Dr. Robinson's Harmony of the Gospels. It is recognized as the work of a reverent and learned student of the Scriptures. By its arrangement of the sacred text it has facilitated the study of the Gospels; and by its notes it has thrown much light upon their meaning. . . . The devout and ripe scholarship of Dr. Riddle has added to the work the results of the discoveries and studies of years. . . . The volume is almost indispensable to the student of the Gospels. — The Churchman (New York).

You could not have intrusted the revision to abler hands than those of Dr. Riddle. Robinson's "Harmony" is now again what it was thirty years ago, the best guide for the comparative study of the Gospels. — PHILIP SCHAFF, D. D.

The "Harmony" is now put on a basis which corresponds to the present condition of Biblical scholarship, and which may carry forward through another generation the good fruits of Dr. Robinson's work. — The Independent (New York).

A HARMONY OF THE FOUR GOSPELS IN ENGLISH.

According to the Common Version. Newly arranged, with Explanatory Notes, by EDWARD ROBINSON, D. D. Twenty-third and Revised Edition. With Foot-notes from the Revised Version of 1881, and Additional Notes, by Professor M. B. RIDDLE, D. D. 12mo, $1.50 net.

Professor Riddle has here undertaken to bring the English "Harmony" into accord with the results of the latest scholarship. He retains the text of the Authorized Version, carefully corrected to conform to the standard English editions, although in some minor instances the standard edition of the American Bible Society when supported by the Revised Version has been followed. The arrangement of the text has also been greatly improved, in some cases representing the later judgments of Dr. Robinson himself, in others being the result of an effort to present parallel lines in parallel clauses.

The foot-notes, which are an entirely new feature, are selected from the Revised Version of 1881, and show all the changes of importance made in the Greek text by the Revisers and also such verbal changes as have a direct bearing on the correspondences and divergences of the several narratives.

The Appendix corresponds to that in Professor Riddle's new edition of the Greek "Harmony," and contains numerous and important additions by the editor, made in accordance with the general design of the "Harmony," and in many cases carrying Dr. Robinson's arguments down to the present conditions of the controversy respecting the Gospels. These additional discussions are written in a form adapted for readers unfamiliar with Greek, and the important matters connected with the Gospels have rarely been treated so fully and clearly in a volume intended for popular use.

The book is printed from an entirely new set of plates.

We cordially welcome a new and revised edition of this standard work. An entirely new and valuable feature of this edition will be found in the foot-notes. So numerous and judiciously selected are the references to the Revised Version in the foot-notes, that the reader is saved the necessity of having that version constantly at hand when he uses the harmony. There are many additions to the illustrative notes at the end of the volume. — Living Church (Chicago).

This Union is formed to maintain the ancient Marriage Law of the land, and in particular to resist the legalisation of marriage with a wife's sister.

The whole principle on which the Marriage Law of this land is based is involved in the acceptance or rejection of the Deceased Wife's Sister Bill. In all countries where the Marriage Law has been relaxed in this one particular, other relaxations have, after some lapse of time, been adopted; in some countries not only may a woman marry her sister's husband, and a man marry his brother's wife, and his wife's niece, or, as in the State of New York, his wife's daughter, but in others a man is freely permitted to marry his niece by blood.

The deliberate opinion of those who have given attention to this question may be ascertained from the overwhelming concurrence of disapproval of the change recorded by the laity in the various Diocesan Conferences. The ceaseless endeavors of those whose relations are personally implicated by infractions of the law of Marriage demand from those who are satisfied with the present law that they should signify their disapproval of the agitation which has been pertinaciously carried on.

By EDMUND KIRKE, author of "Among the Pines," etc. With Portrait of John Sevier, and Map. 12mo, cloth. Price $1.50.

Many readers will recall a volume published during the war, entitled "Among the Pines," appearing under the pen-name of Edmund Kirke. The book attained a remarkable success, and all who have read it will recall its spirited and graphic delineations of life in the South. "The Rear-Guard of the Revolution," from the same hand, is a narrative of the adventures of the pioneers that first crossed the Alleghanies and settled in what is now Tennessee, under the leadership of two remarkable men, James Robertson and John Sevier. Sevier is notably the hero of the narrative. His career was certainly remarkable, as much so as that of Daniel Boone. The title of the book is derived from the fact that a body of hardy volunteers, under the leadership of Sevier, crossed the mountains to uphold the patriotic cause, and by their timely arrival secured the defeat of the British army at King's Mountain.

REASONS FOR BEING A CHURCHMAN.

By the Rev. ARTHUR WILDE LITTLE, M. A., Rector of St. Paul's Church, Portland, Me. Neatly bound in cloth, 282 pages. Price, $1.10 net, including postage. Published by the Young Churchman Company, Milwaukee, Wis.

Few books, if any, have ever met with a more enthusiastic reception at the hands of American Churchmen than has been accorded to Mr. LITTLE's "Reasons for being a Churchman." The following testimonials speak for themselves. Says —

BISHOP WILLIAMS: "I have read them with greatest pleasure. They are most clear and convincing."

BISHOP GREGG: "Most useful for clergy and laity alike, supplying a want which has been sorely felt. I take much pleasure in commending it."

BISHOP SEYMOUR: "Clear in statement, trustworthy in references, and conclusive in argument." BISHOP WELLES: "An admirable statement of convincing reasons. Of great value in the work of the Church."

BISHOP NEELY: "A valuable contribution to the apologetic literature of the Church. A commendous and useful manual."

BISHOP WHIPPLE: "A clear, forcible, and loving argument for the Historic Church. It will do good."

BISHOP DOANE: "I am glad to welcome your work as tending to build people's churchmanship on conviction, not on sentiment. I commend it warmly."

BISHOP KINGDON: "I have read with much satisfaction Mr. Little's book. The arguments are well marshalled, and presented in an attractive and telling manner. It gives a vast amount of information in a condensed and readable form. I recommend it."

THE REV. MORGAN DIX, D. D., D. C. L., Rector of Trinity Church, New York, writes: "I have no hesitation in cordially commending the work entitled 'Reasons for being a Churchman,' by the Rev. Arthur Wilde Little, as, in my judgment, one of the most valuable of recent additions to our Church Literature. I hope it may be sold and read by thousands and tens of thousands of copies."

DEAN HOFFMAN: "It will supply an important want. I shall very gladly commend it to the students."

THE REV. ERASTUS W. SPALDING, D. D.: "It is fearless, clear, and uncompromising, and cannot but bear much fruit."

THE REV. F. W. TAYLOR: "More popular, and of more extended influence than any similar work that has been put into our hands."

THE CHURCH ECLECTIC: "Sound, strong, and convincing. Kind and charitable, yet the truth is presented so clearly and firmly as to be simply overpowering. It has uncommon beauty and interest also. The book is really a complete magazine of the arguments of the Church. It is but little to say that this book ought to be in the hands of every Church family in our country."

THE CHURCHMAN: "Mr. Little has avoided the universal danger of religious writing, dulness. We do not see how his positions can be answered or his conclusions avoided. Remarkably clear and plain."

THE LIVING CHURCH: "A volume of which any author may well have reason to be proud. The historical sections are accurately and well wrought. A trenchant weapon in the hands of all Churchmen. No better work can be found for the inculcation of Church principles."

THE CHURCH PRESS: "A highly creditable book. Simply unanswerable. Should be read by every intelligent layman. The learning is commendable, the reasoning is clear, the style is popular. It meets the long felt want of a text-book for advanced Sunday School classes and candidates for Confirmation. We heartily commend it to the Church."

THE SCHOLIAST: "We cannot commend too highly this volume. It is simply the duty of every Churchman to own, to read, and to lend this book. In no other work we know of can be found so clear, concise, and full a statement of a Churchman's reasons for his faith and practice."

THE CHURCH RECORD: "One of the most perfect instruments for sound instruction concerning the Church that has ever been offered to Churchmen. Ought to be in the hands of every Churchman. Of all books on this important subject, it is the most readable. Popular and attractive in style in the best sense. Once begun it will be read with interest from preface to conclusion."

THE CHURCH STANDARD: "So sufficient, so clearly stated, and so perfectly satisfactory. A book that it is a comfort to read."

THE WESTERN CHURCHMAN: "An admirable piece of work in a difficult field. Such tact and wisdom, combined with such reasonable arguments, and such a strong presentation of historical facts."

THE KENTUCKY CHURCH CHRONICLE: "No disappointment awaits the reader. The book is timely, and admirably adapted for parish circulation. We heartily commend it."

TWO VALUABLE BOOKS.

A HARMONY OF THE FOUR GOSPELS IN GREEK.

Newly arranged, with Explanatory Notes, by EDWARD ROBINSON, D. D., LL. D., lately Professor of Biblical Literature in the Union Theological Seminary, New York. Revised Edition. Giving the Text of Tischendorf, and Various Readings accepted by Tregelles, Westcott, and Hort, and in the Revised English Version of 1881. With additional Notes by Professor M. B. RIDDLE, D. D., Professor of New Testament Exegesis in Hartford Theological School. 8vo, $2.00 net.

It is not necessary, at this time, to speak of the value of Dr. Robinson's Harmony of the Gospels. It is recognized as the work of a reverent and learned student of the Scriptures. By its arrangement of the sacred text it has facilitated the study of the Gospels; and by its notes it has thrown much light upon their meaning. . . . The devout and ripe scholarship of Dr. Riddle has added to the work the results of the discoveries and studies of years. . . . The volume is almost indispensable to the student of the Gospels. — The Churchman (New York).

You could not have intrusted the revision to abler hands than those of Dr. Riddle. Robinson's "Harmony" is now again what it was thirty years ago, the best guide for the comparative study of the Gospels. — PHILIP SCHAFF, D. D.

The "Harmony" is now put on a basis which corresponds to the present condition of Biblical scholarship, and which may carry forward through another generation the good fruits of Dr. Robinson's work. — The Independent (New York).

A HARMONY OF THE FOUR GOSPELS IN ENGLISH.

According to the Common Version. Newly arranged, with Explanatory Notes, by EDWARD ROBINSON, D. D. Twenty-third and Revised Edition. With Foot-notes from the Revised Version of 1881, and Additional Notes, by Professor M. B. RIDDLE, D. D. 12mo, $1.50 net.

Professor Riddle has here undertaken to bring the English "Harmony" into accord with the results of the latest scholarship. He retains the text of the Authorized Version, carefully corrected to conform to the standard English editions, although in some minor instances the standard edition of the American Bible Society when supported by the Revised Version has been followed. The arrangement of the text has also been greatly improved, in some cases representing the later judgments of Dr. Robinson himself, in others being the result of an effort to present parallel lines in parallel clauses.

The foot-notes, which are an entirely new feature, are selected from the Revised Version of 1881, and show all the changes of importance made in the Greek text by the Revisers and also such verbal changes as have a direct bearing on the correspondences and divergences of the several narratives.

The Appendix corresponds to that in Professor Riddle's new edition of the Greek "Harmony," and contains numerous and important additions by the editor, made in accordance with the general design of the "Harmony," and in many cases carrying Dr. Robinson's arguments down to the present conditions of the controversy respecting the Gospels. These additional discussions are written in a form adapted for readers unfamiliar with Greek, and the important matters connected with the Gospels have rarely been treated so fully and clearly in a volume intended for popular use.

The book is printed from an entirely new set of plates.

We cordially welcome a new and revised edition of this standard work. An entirely new and valuable feature of this edition will be found in the foot-notes. So numerous and judiciously selected are the references to the Revised Version in the foot-notes, that the reader is saved the necessity of having that version constantly at hand when he uses the harmony. There are many additions to the illustrative notes at the end of the volume. — Living Church (Chicago).

THE RIVERSIDE PARALLEL BIBLE.

Containing the Old and New Testaments translated out of the original Tongues : Being the Version set forth A. D. 1611, commonly called King James's Version, arranged in parallel columns with the Revised Versions of 1881 and 1885. With References, Prefaces, Lists of Revisers, Readings preferred by the American Revisers, etc. Quarto, 1742 pages, red edges, $5.00 ; Persian, $10.00 ; full morocco, $15.00.

The Riverside Bible meets all the requisitions of typographical accuracy and excellence, is convenient in size, and is placed at a price remarkably low, considering the outlay required for so large and handsome a volume. No publishing house in America or England is better prepared to thoroughly edit and faithfully make such a Bible, and we have in this edition what may be, without qualification, recommended as a correct, serviceable, and finely made book. — Maine Sunday-School Reporter.

The Riverside Parallel Bible, a royal octavo, gotten out with great neatness and taste, is the most attractive issue we have yet seen of the Version of 1611 combined with the recently revised Version. For convenience, for fullness of reference and indications, and for neat and inviting pages for comparison of the two Versions, the edition before us deserves high recommendation. It is printed with the characteristic taste which marks the work of the Riverside Press. — Lutheran Quarterly Review.

The Dictionary of the Bible, edited by William Smith, LL. D., has become the standard Encyclopædia of Biblical knowledge wherever the English language is spoken. The editor, widely known through his classical dictionaries, etc., has brought all his experience and genius for organization to bear upon this work ; and the list of his associates comprises such names as Alford, Blakesley, Bonar, Davies, Deutsch, Ellicott, Farrar, Fergusson, Ffoulkes, Grove, Hervey, Hooker, Houghton, Howson, Huxtable, Layard, Lightfoot, Meyrick, Oppert, Perowne, Plumptre, Poole, Porter, Pritchard, Rawlinson, Stanley, Thomson, Tregelles, Tristram, Twisleton, Westcott, Wordsworth, Wright.

There are several American editions of Smith's Dictionary of the Bible, but this edition comprises not only the contents of the original English edition, unabridged, but very considerable and important additions by the editors, Professors Hackett and Abbot, and twenty-six other eminent American scholars. This edition has 500 more pages than the English, and 100 more illustrations ; more than a thousand errors of reference in the English edition are corrected in this ; and an Index of Scripture illustrated is added.

To the careful scholarship of these two American Professors we are indebted for what is unquestionably the most accurate and serviceable work of its kind for the general student in any tongue. — Prof. J. HENRY THAYER.

What was, to begin with, the best book of its kind in our language is now still better. — Prof. ROSWELL D. HITCHCOCK.

THE WORKS OF EDWIN P. WHIPPLE.

We hold that Edwin P. Whipple is one of the most subtle, discriminating, and profound of critics. Nor are we alone in this opinion. Macaulay said that some of Whipple's essays were the subtlest and ablest and clearest in expression that he had ever read. Miss Mitford wrote that they would bear comparison with any of their class in the older country. Prescott declared that no critic had "ever treated his topics with more discrimination and acuteness." His essay on Wordsworth itself would have made a reputation for another man; and delicious morsels are to be found on every page of his books, which those who read will find. — London Spectator.

TWO IMPORTANT BOOKS.

Reminiscences, chiefly of Oriel College and the Oxford Movement.

By the Rev. T. MOZLEY, formerly Fellow of Oriel. In two volumes. 16mo, $3.00.

Many before now — Oakley, Froude, Kennard, not to mention Newman himself — have contributed to the story of the Tractarian Movement. None of these, not even the famous Apologia, will compare with the volumes now before us in respect to minute fullness, close personal observation, and characteristic touches. Even to the general reader, who knows nothing and cares nothing for the merits of the Oxford Movement, these Reminiscences, in their vivid power and eminent candor, must possess a great charm. To the few survivors of the tragic mêlée, who knew the actors or had a personal stake in the issue, they are fascinating. Mr. Mozley can recall minds and characters by the score, and acquaintances long passed from the scene, and present them with a life and reality which is a sufficient guarantee of faithfulness. — PROF. PATTISON in the London Academy.

Every page of these Reminiscences is delightful. The book must be read by everybody who would understand the age. We have a sketch or a portrait of nearly everybody whose name has become known to us in connection with the Oxford Movement, with countless anecdotes, all giving life to characters that we so often regard almost as abstractions, or principles, or books. — American Literary Churchman (Baltimore).

These volumes should be in the library of every student and reader of English Church history. — Pacific Churchman (San Francisco).

These "Reminiscences" are wonderfully rich in information hitherto inaccessible to most Churchmen. — American Church Review (New York).

History of the Papacy during the Period of the Reformation.

By the Rev. M. CREIGHTON, M. A., Late Fellow of Merton College, Oxford. In two volumes. I. The Great Schism — The Council of Constance, 1378–1418. II. The Council of Basel — The Papal Restoration, 1418–1464. With Appendices and Index. 8vo, $10.00.

The author's work is in all respects a great one, and is certain of a permanent place on the shelves of the student of ecclesiastical history. It is a grand specimen of conscientious workmanship, written in an admirable spirit, and a credit to English historical scholarship. — English Churchman (London).

The fullness of the facts here recorded will make this history a most valuable one for reference. — The Churchman (New York).

His work is fairly entitled to rank among the most thorough, impartial, and trustworthy of recent contributions to historical literature. — The Independent (New York).

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

IN 1887 THE LIVING AGE enters upon its forty-fourth year. It has met with the constant commendation of the leading men and journals of the country, and with uninterrupted success.

A WEEKLY MAGAZINE, it gives fifty-two numbers of sixty-four pages each, or more than Three and a Quarter Thousand double-column octavo pages of reading-matter yearly. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a completeness nowhere else attempted, The best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Serial and Short Stories, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature, and from the pens of The Foremost Living Writers.

The ablest and most cultivated intellects, in every department of Literature, Science, Politics, and Art, find expression in the Periodical Literature of Europe, and especially of Great Britain.

The Living Age, forming four large volumes a year, furnishes from the great and generally inaccessible mass of this literature, the only compilation that, while within the reach of all, is satisfactory in the COMPLETENESS with which it embraces whatever is of immediate interest, or of solid, permanent value.

It is therefore indispensable to every one who wishes to keep pace with the events or intellectual progress of the time, or to cultivate in himself or his family general intelligence and literary taste.

OPINIONS.

"The best of all the serial publications. . . It presents all that is best, most interesting, and profitable to be found in the current literature of the day. The reader is kept abreast with the best thought of the age, political, scientific, and literary, while there is just fiction enough interspersed between the more solid papers to be restful and entertaining. To our mind, THE LIVING AGE has no equal, and we cannot see where it could be improved."—Christian at Work, New York.

"The aim of the conductors is to give the best and freshest thought of the time; and in this they are succeeding now, as for so many years, to the great satisfaction and profit of a multitude of at once exacting and satisfied readers."—New-York Evangelist.

"It contains nearly all the good literature of the time. . . There is nothing noteworthy in science, art, literature, biography, philosophy, or religion, that cannot be found in it. . . It is a library in itself."—The Churchman, New York.

"To have THE LIVING AGE is to hold the keys of the entire world of thought, of scientific investigation, psychological research, critical note, of poetry and romance. . . It has never been so bright, so comprehensive, so diversified in interest, as it is to-day."—Boston Evening Traveller.

"Every volume attests anew the care and discrimination and catholic taste of its conductors. . . Nearly the whole world of authors and writers appear in it in their best moods. . . Art, science, and literature find fresh and eloquent expression in its pages, from the pens of the best writers of the day; and the reader is kept well abreast of the current thought of the age."—Boston Journal.

"It may be truthfully and cordially said that it never offers a dry or valueless page."—New-York Tribune.

"It is edited with great skill and care, and its weekly appearance gives it certain advantages over its monthly rivals."—Albany Argus.

"It is one of the publications that intelligent people regard as practically indispensable. . . From its pages one learns what the world is thinking about. . . It is an education in itself, as well as an entertainment."—Hartford Courant.

"The American reader who wishes to keep the run of English periodical literature can do so in no other way so thoroughly and cheaply as by taking THE LIVING AGE."—Springfield Republican.

"Terribly should we miss its familiar russet garb, its exterior by no means revealing its true inwardness of poetry, history, philosophy, and romance. It is without a peer, with hardly a second."—Lowell Courier.

"Through its pages alone, it is possible to be as well informed in current literature as by the perusal of a long list of monthlies."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"A grand repository of the literature of the age. . . It has become indispensable."—New-York Observer.

"The subscription price is slight in comparison with the mass of the best current literature which it brings with it in its weekly visits. . . In fact, a reader needs no more than this one publication to keep him well abreast of English periodical literature."—Sunday-School Times, Philadelphia.

"Foremost of the eclectic periodicals."—New-York World.

"It is a necessity for those who, with no great amount of time available for literary reading, wish to keep fully abreast with the literature of the day."—The Interior, Chicago.

"It furnishes a complete compilation of an indispensable literature."—Chicago Evening Journal.

"It enables its readers to keep fully abreast of the best thought and literature of civilization."—Christian Advocate, Pittsburg.

"It saves not only time, but money."—Pacific Churchman, San Francisco.

"It is absolutely without a rival. . . Coming once a week, it gives, while yet fresh, the productions of the foremost writers of the day. . . Essay and review, biography, travel, science, fiction, poetry, the best of each and all is here placed within reach. To neglect such an opportunity of keeping pace with the thought of our day, and of laying by a rich store of the best literature, would, it seems to us, be a grave mistake."—Montreal Gazette.

"It keeps well up its reputation for being the best periodical in the world."—Morning Star, Wilmington, N. C.
